27-Question Seller Call Script

Word-for-word first-call script. Read it as written, then stop talking and listen.

1. Rapport opener

1. "Hi [name], this is [your name]. I'm a buyer looking at parks nearby. Got two minutes?"
2. "I've driven past [park name] on [road]. Looks like you've owned it a while. How long?"
3. "Before anything heavy, what's the one thing you're proudest of about the park?"

2. Motivation

4. "What's making you think about selling right now?"
5. "Do you have a timeline in mind, or are you just testing the water?"
6. "If it doesn't sell, what happens? Do you just keep running it?"
7. "Is anyone else in the family part of this decision?"
8. "Have other buyers looked at it? What happened with them?"

3. The numbers they will actually share

9. "What do you actually collect each month? Not the rent roll, the cash in the bank."
10. "How many tenants are more than a month behind right now?"
11. "Who pays the utilities? Are water and sewer billed back to tenants?"
12. "What did the electric bill run on your worst month last summer?"
13. "What expense surprised you most this past year?"
14. "If you had to fix one thing tomorrow, what would it be?"
15. "When did money last go into the roads or the sewer system?"
16. "Are any homes park-owned, and are they included in your price?"
17. "Is there income you don't report? I can only underwrite what I can verify."

4. Seller-financing feelers

18. "Would you ever consider carrying some of the financing yourself?"
19. "What down payment would you need to feel comfortable with that?"
20. "Are you firmer on the price, or on the terms?"
21. "What monthly payment would make this work for you?"

5. Listen for it

Vague numbers and subject changes: they are hiding the books. "I don't report it all": you cannot underwrite what they cannot show, price on verified income only. "It's fine" on repairs: ask what breaks every winter instead. Rushing you with phantom buyers: a real buyer never bids against a voice on the phone.

6. Next-step lock

22. "Can you send me the last 12 months of bank statements for the park?"
23. "And the actual utility bills for the last year: electric, water, sewer?"
24. "Who do I talk to about walking the property?"
25. "Can I call you back next week after I've looked at those?"
26. "What's the best number and time to reach you?"
27. "Last one: is there anything I should have asked that I didn't?"
