First-30-Days Takeover Checklist

Property: _____ Date: _____

You closed on the park. The seller's habits are gone and yours start now. Work this in order. Speed matters, but sequence matters more.

1. Days 1-7: Take control

- [ ] Bank signatories changed and the operating account is under your control.
- [ ] Insurance bound in your name, effective day one.
- [ ] Tenant intro letter delivered to every lot: who you are, where rent goes, who to call.
- [ ] Rent-collection system live before the next due date.
- [ ] Manager meeting done, with role and pay in writing.
- [ ] Vendor contracts inventoried, with end dates and cancellation terms.
- [ ] Keys, locks, and codes changed.

2. Days 8-14: Learn the ground

- [ ] Seller transition-support window activated per the purchase agreement. Never a verbal be available.
- [ ] Walk every lot against your diligence notes. Confirm what you bought is what you got.
- [ ] Delinquency list built from day one. Know exactly who owes what.

3. Days 15-30: Set the standard

- [ ] Utility accounts transferred into your name or entity.
- [ ] Deferred-maintenance triage scheduled, worst items first.
- [ ] Rule enforcement reset communicated in writing to every tenant.
- [ ] First full rent cycle reconciled against the rent roll you verified.

4. The rule

> If it was not in the purchase agreement, it does not exist. Verbal transition promises die at closing.

5. Handoff note

Keep every diligence document. The record you built is now your operating baseline.
