The Offer Term-Sheet Builder

Property: _____ Date: _____

Fill this in before your attorney drafts the LOI. Price is one line; the terms are the deal. This sheet organizes your terms. Your attorney writes the actual LOI.

1. Price and valuation basis

Purchase price: _____

How I got there (one line): _____

Earnest money amount: _____

2. Diligence

Diligence period (days): _____

☐ EMD goes hard only after this evidence is in hand:

Evidence in hand means: _____

☐ Inspection rights include septic/sewer systems, wells, and all utility infrastructure.

3. Financing

Seller financing ask: down payment: _____

Rate: _____ Term (years): _____ Amortization (years): _____

☐ Third-party financing contingency: offer stands only if financing is secured on acceptable terms.

4. Transition

Seller transition-support window (days): _____

Support includes: _____

☐ On-site manager introduction and handoff meeting included.

5. Verification clause

☐ Offer is subject to verification of the seller's stated rents, occupancy, and expenses against bank records.

6. What is NOT in this sheet

Representations, warranties, and closing mechanics belong to your attorney. This checklist does not draft them and does not replace legal review.